Poor Bedtime Bear was not feeling well.
Cheer Bear found him tucked in his bed.

“What’s wrong?”
Cheer Bear asked.

“My nose is stuffy and my head hurts,” Bedtime Bear replied. “How will I watch over everyone tonight?”

“Cheer up,” said Cheer Bear. “I’ll take care of everything.”

That night, while everyone was getting ready for bed, Cheer Bear gathered all the wishing stars together.

"I'll be staying up tonight so Bedtime Bear can get some extra rest," she told the stars.

"Let's go tuck in everyone and say good night."

The next morning, Cheer Bear was very tired. She was just dozing off, when Share Bear bumped into her.

“I am so sorry,”
said Share Bear. “I was in such a hurry, I didn’t see you.”

“That’s okay,” said Cheer Bear.
But why are you in a hurry? You look very worried.”

"The Care Bear Cousins are coming to Care-a-lot Castle for a party tonight," said Share Bear. "I still have to bake the cake and make the decorations. There is so much to do!"

"Cheer up,"

said Cheer Bear.

"I'll help you. I can make that cake in two shakes."

“Aren’t you tired?”
asked Share Bear.

“Don’t worry. I could make a cake with my eyes closed,” teased Cheer Bear.

Cheer Bear worked hard to make the cake for the party. But she was so sleepy, she didn't notice how much batter she was making.

"This cake should be just enough for all the Care Bear Cousins," she said. She rubbed her tired eyes.

"And now I have just enough time for a SNOOZE before I need to frost it."

But just as Cheer Bear was putting the cake in the oven, Wish Bear and Funshine Bear came by.

"You look so sad," Cheer Bear told them.
"What's wrong?"

“We wish we could cheer up Grumpy Bear,” Wish Bear replied.

“But it isn’t working. What fun is that?”
added Funshine Bear.

“Cheer up,” said Cheer Bear.

“I’m the Care Bear to do it!

Come on!

Let’s go make happiness happen!,”

In the car on the way to see Grumpy Bear, Cheer Bear yawned and yawned.
“We’re almost there,” said Wish Bear.

“Great,” said Cheer Bear. “Because I still need to finish that cake in two . . . in two . . .”

“Shakes?” finished Funshine Bear. But when he turned around, Cheer Bear was fast asleep.

Cheer Bear slept
all afternoon.

When she finally woke up, she was back in Care-a-lot Castle, and the Care Bear Cousins were already there for the party.

“Oh no,” Cheer Bear cried.
“I didn’t finish the cake.”

“Cheer up,”

said Funshine Bear.

“We finished the cake
for you.”

“And helping finish
the cake sure cheered me up,” said Grumpy Bear. “It’s just like you always say, Cheer Bear:

“Nothing makes you feel happier than helping a friend.”

"And it was a good thing
we had help," said Share Bear.
"You made a gigantic cake.
It took all of us to frost it."

“Uh-oh,” said Cheer Bear.
“I made so much cake batter because I was so tired.”

“Cheer up,” said Share Bear. “You made enough cake for all the Care Bear Cousins and enough for me to share with all the Care Bears.
Now come on, it’s party time!”

Cheer Bear smiled as she looked around at all of her friends enjoying the party. "I only wish Bedtime Bear was feeling better and could be here," she sighed.

“Did you say wish?”
asked Wish Bear.

Just then Bedtime Bear popped out from behind a cloud. “Cheer up,” he cried.

“Because here I am!”

“You’re here!” said Cheer Bear.
“You must be feeling better.”

"I sure am," said Bedtime Bear.

"Thanks to you, I'm feeling a lot better."

"Thanks to you," said Share Bear.

"We're all feeling a lot better."

“No one’s better at cheering us up than you are, Cheer Bear,” said Secret Bear.

“Three cheers for Cheer Bear!”

"But I almost messed everything up,"
said Cheer Bear.

"Cheer Bear, we would love you even if you did mess up," said Wish Bear. "But it all turned out great!
Because messing up is kind of like a rainy day."

“Just add a little sunshine,” said Funshine Bear. “And what do you get?”

Everyone looked down at Cheer Bear's tummy. "A rainbow!"
all the Care Bears cried.

„Cheerific!„

laughed Cheer Bear.
